10. clothes: you like what clothes? Clothes aren't only used to keep us warm. It has become an important part of modern civilization. Different nations have different styles clothes. And different styles clothes represent different cultures. All people want their life to be filled with variety, color and comfort by wearing clothes. We will have a good mood when we wear beautiful clothes. I like leisure clothes very much. Because it is not only cheap but also convenient to wear. (In addition, the material of leisure clothes is more environmentally friendly.) But I must wear work clothes when we are working. Otherwise, I will be fined.

1) What's the prescription on clothes when you are working? and just the prescription on clothes in school. We must wear work clothes (a school uniform) when we are working (in school). Otherwise, we will be fined.

2) the difference between the older and younger people on clothes. The older people think a lot of style and material. But the younger people would like to follow the fashion. Personality is the first consideration when younger people choose clothes. 3) compare the differences between the clothes in ur city with them in 20 years ago. In the past, the colors and styles of clothes were very monotonous. Thousands of people look the same. But now, we can wear clothes with different colors and styles.

11 Think of a person in your family that is the most similar to you. Who is this person? How is he/she similar to you? What kind of family is yours? Is it of a typical family structure in China? My family is a typical family in China. There are grandparents, parents, a brother, my wife and I in my family. I look just like my father. Medium build, pointed nose and dense black hair. My father is very kind and easy going. His love is the most selfless love. I am lucky enough because I have a good father. My father has been especially thirsty for knowledge as he had only a few years of schooling himself. He believes that knowledge can change fate. So, my father offers more opportunity for me to study (no matter how poor my family was) To sum up, my family is harmony and our life is very happy.

1) What do you think are the differences between families in the past and today, and what have caused these changes? In the past, there were several children in a family. But now, government has introduced "one-child policy" to limit the size of the family. So, there is only one child in a family. Couples will be punished financially if they have more than one child. This is "one-child policy".

2) What is your opinion of "one-child policy"? I agree with one-child policy. Because it is difficult to provide enough food and education for a large number of people. So, government must control the population. Also, it is the best way that we can find to control population. 3) What has your government done to support families? Such as Project Hope. It means that government supports the students in poor families to continue their schooling and improving their education conditions. (6/1999 P10) In addition, our government establishes beadhouse to provide services for old people who have more difficulties or no families to take care of them. (3/1999 P34)

12 Describe a teacher who has greatly influenced you in your education. You should say: where you met them what subject they taught what was special about them and explain why this person influenced you so much. I think my first English teacher has greatly influenced me in my education. I had some trouble in studying English when I studied in middle school. I felt English was very difficult, so I didn't like to study it. One day, my English teacher spoke to me about the study of foreign languages. He said: "You must do a lot of reading, listening and speaking. Never mind, keep on trying, I believe you are a good student." In the years that followed, I studied hard and made greater progress. My English teacher loved his job and he was knowledgeable in his field. I love and respect him.

1) compare the differences between education in your city with them in 20 years ago? In the past, many children can't go to school, and educational conditions were very poor. But now, government provide 9 years compulsory education. Each child who is 7 years old must go to school. And government provide much better facilities and staff. Also, schoolyards are beautiful than before.

2) compare the differences between university and middle school? We study basic knowledge in the middle school. But the course of university is practical and special, such as computer and business courses.

3)compare the differences between students now and past . At present , it is difficult for student to find job. So, their pressure is heavier than before.
