At

that time, I was working for a small engineering company. However, things were not going very well for the company and it was losing money. One day, the boss told us that the company was out of business. We were all unemployed. That lunch time we went to the pub as usual. We were all very depressed. While of course, we talked about the problem. Then the landlord of the pub heard the news. He said, “ Why don ’ t you buy the company. ” At first we all laughed and then we started to discuss it properly. We knew the problems. The company had lost a lot of customers because it hadn ’ t developed new products, but finally we decided to go for it. So we bought the company. The first few years were very difficult. But we worked hard and we had a bit of luck. We began to improve 3 years ago. Since then we have done pretty well. Last years we took on 4 new people. And so far this year we have taken on another ten. 11. Who bought the company that was out of business? 12. When did the company start to employ new people? 13. What did the story mainly tell us? 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
