As the sun has enough power to warm and light the whole earth, it must have enough power to do other things, too. We can use solar energy to produce electricity and to heat our houses. We have the reasons to believe that one day other energies in the world will be replaced by solar energy.

Information in the Modern World Information is indispensable in the modern world. It is true that successes in many fields depend on getting the latest information while failures often result from the lack of necessary information. That is why our current era is called “ The Information Age ” . There are many ways of getting information, which enables us to keep well-informed of what is going on in the world. First, we can get information by reading newspapers and magazines, which contains articles about information including local, regional, national, and international news, as well as sports news, weather reports, and other features. Second, we can listen to the news on the radio and watch television to get information. Finally, we can get information most quickly and accurately from the information express - the Internet, which is now acknowledged as the most important means for people to keep up with the latest information. With the rapid development of science and technology, I believe that information will become still more important in the future and also the means by which people can get information will be constantly renewed.
