Many students feel that such a home-stay program is a valuable part of their total learning experience. However, others may feel that such a plan offers little value. In a short essay, discuss one or two advantages of living with an American family and then state one or two disadvantages. Tell whether you are in favor of or opposed to the idea of home-stay. Give examples to support your opinion. A foreign (foreign) student studying in America is wise to live with an American family because when a foreign (foreign) student comes to the United States he must make many important adjustments. A foreign student also learns how to take on responsibilities concerning his new family, he adapts (adapts) to their American lifestyle as they adapt (adapt) to his. It is a learning experience on both parts. You have a (A student has an) advantage when living (he lives) with an American family, because they would (he will) learn the American ways and customs better with an American family than if they would live (he lived) with his own homeboys (countrymen). The American family becomes a second family to the foreign student. At times a foreign student may get homesick. But having (having) a trustworthy second family can give him the security and acceptance he (that he) needs. He is probably used to having a family around him, so he will feel safe if he lives with an American family.
