remember special gifts weve received because these gifts often are part of a special memory for us. It may be a memory of someone special weve cared deeply about. He or she may no longer be alive.

Or it may be a memory of a special event in our lives. It may even be a memory of the person we once were at some particular moment in our lives. Gifts from other people can make us feel joy every time we look at them. A gift from our parents, or our husband or wife makes us feel loved each time we see or use it. If we have children, the first gift our child made for us in kindergarten is cherished long after the child has grown up. A family heirloom given to us by a grandparent makes us feel connected to our past. A gift from a good friend is a reminder of all the good times weve shared. A memento from a respected colleague is a reminder of a job we worked on successfully together. Gifts may also pinpoint special events in our lives. Gifts given to us as part of our religious heritage, such as First Communion or Chanukkah gifts, remind us of those celebrations.

The same is true for gifts given for birthdays and graduations, and for the anniversaries of special days in our lives, like our wedding day. Gifts can also be a symbol of the person we were at a particular point in our lives. A gift received in childhood may remind us of a passionate hobby that's now boxed in the attic. A gift received when we left a job may bring to mind the first career we had, now that we're on our third or fourth. The gifts that are important to us are the ones that remind us of family, friends, and happy times. They're a way of surrounding ourselves with our past.

Topic: 161 Do you still remember the new bike as a present for greeting your ten years old birthday from your parents? Do you still remember the first rose with the love of your lover? Everyone has been received a variety of presents and gifts, and everyone has many nice memories about them. People might conserve some special presents many years until they become old, for these presents not only represent the love, but also take them back to the past time. There are numerous reasons why I hold no confidence on them, and I would explore only a few primary ones here. The main reason of the argument I support is that there always are a good time or a touching day behind the cherished presents. Every time we open the present conserved for a long time, we seem to come back before, at that time we are so young and have a pleasure time with friends. For example, the favorite toy will recall you the best friend in your childhood. A beautiful skirt maybe represent the time of middle school. And there so many letters and cards which recall you the time of college. All of these memories are happy times, and all of these presents are indelible. Another reason can be seen by every person is that gifts and presents contain the love and friendship of friends and relations. In different cultures and different countries people express their emotions to others by presenting gifts. And every special gift has a special meaning. For example, this skirt as a gift of ten years ago is your sister sent to you in the party. A pearl necklace represents the love of your husband. We reserve these gifts and Love and friendship will always go with us. In addition, receiving a gift always brings you happiness and pleasure, and gives you and your friends a good time. People like to send gifts each other for congratulations or in feast days. For example, perhaps everyone has some pieces of gifts for Christmas day. Some wife will reserve the important presents for wedding. Generally speaking, gifts with the love and congratulations will bring you pleasure and happiness. Taking into account of all these factors, gifts and presents recall 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
