Comprehension Section A Directions: In this section, you will hear 8 short conversations and 2 long conversations. At the end of each conversation, one or more questions will be asked about what was said. Both the conversation and the questions will be spoken only once. After each question there will be a pause. During the pause, you must read the four choices marked A), B), C) and D), and decide which is the best answer. Then mark the corresponding letter on Answer Sheet 2 with a single line through the centre.

11. W: We ' ll wait here by the door and look at the sea. We can change our rooms if we don ' t like them. M: Oh, I would like a room facing the sea. I ' ve been looking forward to that ever since we left London. Q: Where does the conversation most probably take place?

12. M: When do you want to start working? W: Right away. Yesterday I spent all day making phone calls. But nobody wanted a secretary. Q: What can we learn from the conversation?

13. W: Bob said that Seattle is a great place for conferences. M: He ' s certainly in a position to make that comment. He ' s been there so often. Q: What does the man say about Bob?

14. M: Hey, Mary. My parents are coming to visit for the weekend. Any idea where I can find an inexpensive place for them to stay near the campus? W: Try that new hotel down the road. My parents stayed there when they were here last month. It was nice. Oh, yeah, the rates are really reasonable. Q: What does the woman imply?

15.M: The bookstore is out of the texts for English Literature. And the exam is next Monday. W: You ' d better borrow one from the library, because the new order won ' t arrive by then. Q: What does the woman mean? 16.W: Did you hear that Henry is leaving the company? M: Yes. That ' s too bad. I was under the impression he was on a fast track to the top. W: It sure looked that way. Everyone was always saying what a good job he was doing. He must have done something wrong. Q: What did people think about Henry? 17. M: Did you watch the eight o ' clock news program last night? W: I couldn ' t because I had an appointment with Professor Li then. Q: Why did the woman miss the news program? 18. W: Come in, Jack. Would you like some cookies? I ' ve just taken them out of the oven. M: They look very good, but I shouldn ' t eat any. I put on weight very easily. Q: Why does the man refuse to try the cookies? Now you ' ll hear two long conversations. Conversation One M: Let ' s just go over the arrangements for my trip to Bombay. W: Sure, here ' s your schedule. You ' re flying at 9:55 on Monday evening. That ' s British Airways flight 139. Er, you have to check in two hours before, so I ' ve arranged for a car to pick you up from the office at 6:30. M: Good. What time does the flight get into Bombay? W: It gets into Bombay at 11:15. That ' s local time, of course. Er, I ' ve booked you a room at the Oberoi. They ' re going to send a car to pick you up. M: Fine. Now when am I seeing Mr. Shah? W: Tuesday afternoon at two. By the way, Mr. Majundar is coming to the meeting as well. M: That ' s good news. we won ' t have to arrange a separate meeting. And has the tour of the new plant in Bombay and the meeting with the directors been arranged for Wednesday? W: Yes, they ' ll pick you up in the morning at 9, and plan to show you the plant, take you to lunch, and return you to the hotel at about 5 p.m. M: Good. Now, has my visa arrived? W: No, not yet. I ' ll phone the embassy and find out if they ' ve sent it off yet. M: Thanks. And could you order some travelers ' cheques? W: Sure, I ' ll phone the bank. M: And when am I flying back? W: I ' m afraid the earliest flight I could get is Thursday at 1:15 a.m., everything else was booked up. That ' s British Airways again, flight 138. That gets you back into London at 6:25 Thursday morning. You ' ve got Thursday in London for the Sales Meeting, but not until 3 p.m., then Friday morning you ' re leaving for New York...
