When students move into the accommodations offered by college, they are taught to live in harmony. Harmony in their rooms is crucial to their lives in college days. It can further affect their emotions and even studies.来源：www.examda.com Despite that, many acts conducted by students reflect the disharmony in university residences. For example, most of the boys rooms are in a mess. The importance of good cleaning habits should be stressed. And sour relations between students living together fundamentally endanger the harmony in college dormitories. Some trivial matters can trigger conflicts. We should view everyone as our friend and respect each other.来源：www.examda.com From my perspective, we should drive our efforts to boost the harmony in college residences. This goal is far-reaching. Boarders should take a package of measures to fulfill it. A harmonious dormitory environment can play a positive role in college students' studies and lives. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
