This time of year most students are focused on meeting new friends, joining new activities and upcoming classes. Thoughts of the past easily drift away while future exploits receive the most attention. But as you busy yourself with the new semester, pause a moment to remember the famous writer, Lu Xun, who would have celebrated his 124th birthday today. In commemoration of this great man ' s life, the Book Club has organized a guest speaker from Peking University to come speak to students about some of Lu Xun ' s unpublished memoirs. The lecture will be in Classroom 204 in the main building, starting at 7:00 pm. Such an academic lecture might not seem like the most appealing way to spend a Friday evening, but it promises to be an evening that will both entertain and inform even the most seasoned students of Chinese history.

2、倡议书 Children ' s Day is coming! To truly show your care for the next generation, students should use this Children ' s Day to make a lasting gift -- a donation to Project Hope in their honor. As college students, we understand the value of education and the positive impact it can have on a person ' s future by increasing marketable job skills and earning power. Unfortunately, many children who have postponed their school plans to get jobs to support their families are unable to afford the expense of education today. With your support, Project Hope can continue to give deserving children the chance to strengthen themselves, their families and their communities through education. To make a Children ' s Day donation or for more information about Project Hope, check out our Web site at www.projecthope.com or you can contact the student union by the number 010-36227711

5、关于获奖运动员高薪的问题

Directions: For this part, you are allowed 30 minutes to write a composition on the title Should Olympic Athletes Get High Salaries according to the following OUTLINE given in Chinese. Your composition should have no fewer than 120 words.

1:雅典奥运会后，关于获奖运动员高薪的问题引起了社会的广泛关注。 2：有些人支持这种做法，认为运动员们付出了很多，赢得回报；有些人则持反对意见。 3：我的观点

After the Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, the topic of whether it is fair for athletes to pocket large sums of money from their Olympic participation is arousing more and more interest from the public. Those who support high salaries for these athletes may offer some of the following reasons. Firstly, just as the old saying goes, “ no pain, no gain. ” The athletes in the Olympic Games must have undergone painstaking physical and psychological training. It naturally follows that they deserve commensurate compensation for these sacrifices. What ' s more, they make significant contributions to a positive international reputation for their home countries. This gives them yet another reason to deserve monetary compensation in addition to the advantages already offered them. The main reason that the naysayers often have is that they do little to boost the national economy directly, and thus should not receive compensation of the monetary kind. Even the naysayers admit, however, that these athletes do offer a lot of positive encouragement to young people in persuading them to participate in physical activity. As for me, I side with the supporters of greater compensation for Olympic athletes. The more we give, the more we deserve to have. On account of all the time and energy they spend in rigorous training, I firmly believe that they should get high salaries.

6、不文明现象 Directions: For this part, you are allowed 30 minutes to write a composition on the title Immoral Behavior in Public according to the following OUTLINE given in Chinese. Your composition should be no fewer than 120 words.

1：我们经常在公共场合见到各种不道德的行为，叙述你的一次相关经历。 2：这些不文明的行为会有哪些影响。 3：我们应该怎样改善这种现象。

Immoral Behavior in Public To witness immoral behavior in public, one need only visit the Beijing subway. I still remember the first time I took the Beijing subway. It was an early morning. I was in a hurry to go to school. When I was trying to get a ticket, I found a lot of people waiting in front of me, but nobody was in the line. Immoral behaviors in public exert a series of problems. One of the most serious ones is that it may exert a negative impact on our sense of social responsibility. We will keep ignoring other people ' s rights and feelings, and in turn, we too will be disrespected some day. The improvement of this phenomenon is certainly not easy. With an eye on practical implementation and cost effectiveness, I propose that society make it clear in every way that people who fail to respect the common good will be seriously punished. Stricter policies for this should be made to correct this phenomenon as soon as possible. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
