When they seek a public role , they should expect that they will lose at least some of their privacy. ” (病历文) Everyone has the right to keep his/her privacy , including the public figures. People have the nature to learn others privacy , especially those of the celebrities for various reasons , such as reverance and curiousness , but it doesnt follow that they are entitled to pry others private life , and it is really unfair to say that any public figure choose to expose his/her privacy by himself/herself as long as he/she seek a public role. In the current days , it is a widely spread atmosphere that people take a strong interest in talking about the private life of celebrities , they even rival each other in the fact that who knows more about a common interested celebrity. To cater such a taste , more and more mass media try their best to collect each aspect of a public figures private life with an interest even exceeding that of making known their work. When we read a entertainment paper or magazine , we are certain to find that most of the content are the private life of singers and stars , such as someone got a divorce with his/her ex-girlfried/ex-boyfriend and is now keeping contract with someone else , etc. All that exists is not valid , we couldnt say that it is in reason to spy into others privacy just because most people prefer to do so , and we should not just accept a unfair fact without exert any effort to change the circumstance. To put your own feet in the shoes of the public figures , do you feel comfortable to be watched everywhere you go , and find a lot of affair news about you in the media especially when most of the news are made out by the pressmen ? If your answer to this question is no , you should agree that we are obliged to do something to change the current situation about the private life of public figures. Special laws should be enacted to discipline the prying into privacy of the mass media , sound should be heard arguing again peoples interest in celebrities private life. Only when the public figures are liberated from the harassment of worrying about their privacy's protection , we can expect a better service from them , and in that case , more capable people will be attracted to pursue a public role. Suppose that if a singer is followed everywhere he/she goes , how can he/she lead a normal life as common people , how can he/she get a relaxation ? He/she must be cautious when he/she says every words , he/she can't expect a casual and relaxing atmosphere as every common people can enjoy. It is difficult for him/her to concentrate all their energy in working , as a consequence , we would lose some more brilliant performance we can expect otherwise. In summary , we should call on the public to cease to spy into the celebrities privacy and pay more attention to their public life , only in that way can the public figure enjoy their life better and can we expect a better service from them. ) 评析：这篇文章的主要失误来自作者未能仔细审题便下笔一蹴而就，题目所讨论的对象明明是Public Figures，从头到尾
