Do a diagnostic test within its time limit first. see how far the score is away from the median score of schools you want to apply to. And then you may evaluate how much room for improvement in 6 months (since i think you will probably take the test in this coming June). Logic reasoning and games usually see faster improvement in a few months. but reading comprehension is very much to your current English level Your schedule is indeed pretty tight. Q: 一直想问的问题，中国名校毕业对申请美国JD有帮助吗? A: 好像外国教授最重LSAT, 名校不好量化... 我记得一本书上访谈Stanford招生主任，其中说. "students should pay special attention to PS. However, if you have a high LSAT score, you do not have to worry about it..."之类的话。 A: American admission committees generally know little about Chinese schools. I heard that it does help a lot if you let them know, in some way, like through your PS, reference letter, what it means to you to be able to get to the school you attended. they appreciate if you let them know as much as possible about your school. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
