下面短文回答第1~6题： ' Where is the university? ' is a question many visitors to Cambridge ask, but no one can give them a clear answer for there is no wall to be found around the university. The university is the city. You can find the classroom buildings, libraries, museums and offices of the university all over the city. And most of its members are the students and teachers or professors of the thirty-one colleges. Cambridge was already a developing town long before the first students and teachers arrived 800 years ago. It grew up by the river Granta, as the Cam was once called. A bridge was built over the river as early as 875. In the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries more and more land was used for college buildings. The town grew much faster in the nineteenth century after the opening of the railway in 1845. Cambridge became a city in 1951 and now it has a population (人口) of over 100,000. Many young students want to study at Cambridge. Thousands of people from all over the world come to visit the university town. It has become a famous place all around the world. 1. Why do most visitors come to Cambridge?[A] To see Cambridge University.[B] To study in the colleges in Cambridge.[C] To use the libraries of the university. 2. What does "its" refer to (指的是??) in "... most of its members are ..."?[A] The museum or office.[B] The people in Cambridge.[C] The University of Cambridge 3. Around what time did the university begin to appear?[A] In the 9th century.[B] In the 13th century.[C] In the 15th century. 4. Why did people name the city Cambridge?[A] Because there is a bridge over the Cam.[B] Because the river was very well known.[C] Because there is a river named Granta. 5. After which year did the town really begin to develop?[A] After 800. [B] After 875. [C] After 1845. 6. From what we read, we know that now Cambridge is _____.[A] visited by international tourists[B] a city of growing population[C] may have a wall around it
