33 . “ People are likely to accept as a leader only someone who has demonstrated an ability to perform the same tasks that he or she expects others to perform. ” 92 . “ Government should establish regulations to reduce or eliminate any suspected health hazards in the environment, even when the scientific studies of these health hazards are incomplete or contradictory. ” 100 . “ If a nation is to ensure its own economic success, it must maintain a highly competitive educational system in which students compete among themselves and against students from other countries. ” 115 .

“ Technology ultimately separates and alienates people more than it serves to bring them together. ” 二 . Analysis of Argument Questions 92 . The following is taken from an editorial in a local newspaper. “ Over the past decade, the price per pound of citrus fruit has increased substantially. Eleven years ago, Megamart charged 5 cents apiece for lemons, but today it commonly charges over 30 cents apiece. In only one of these last eleven years was the weather unfavorable for growing citrus crops. Evidently, then, citrus growers have been responsible for the excessive increase in the price of citrus fruit, and strict pricing regulations are needed to prevent them from continuing to inflate prices. ” 95 . The following appeared as part of an article in the business section of a local newspaper. “ Hippocrene Plumbing Supply recently opened a wholesale outlet in the location once occupied by the Cumquat Caf é . Hippocrene has apparently been quite successful there because it is planning to open a large outlet in a nearby city. But the Cumquat Caf é , one year after moving to its new location, has seen its volume of business drop somewhat from the previous year ' s. Clearly, the former site is a better business location, and the Cumquat Caf é has made a mistake in moving to its new address. ” 97 . The following appeared as part of an article in a computer magazine. “ A year ago Apex Manufacturing bought its managers computers for their homes and paid for telephone connections so that they could access Apex computers and data files from home after normal business hours. Since last year, productivity at Apex has increased by 15 percent. Other companies can learn from the success at Apex: given home computers and access to company resources, employees will work additional hours at home and thereby increase company profits. ” 106 . The following appeared as part of an article in the book section of a newspaper. “ Currently more and more books are becoming available in electronic form either free-of-charge on the Internet or for a very low price-per-book on compact disc.* Thus literary classics are likely to be read more widely than ever before. People who couldn ' t have purchased these works at bookstore prices will now be able to read them for little or no money. similarly, people who find it inconvenient to visit libraries and wait for books to be returned by other patrons will now have access to whatever classic they choose from their home or work computers. This increase in access to literary classics will radically affect the public taste in reading, creating a far more sophisticated and learned reading audience than has ever existed before. ” *A “ compact disc ” is a small portable disc capable of storing relatively large amounts of data that can be read by a computer. 113 . The following appeared in a memorandum written by the assistant manager of a store that sells gourmet food items from various countries. “ A local wine store made an interesting discovery last month: it sold more French than Italian wine on days when it played recordings of French accordion music, but it sold more Italian than French wine on days when Italian songs were played. Therefore, I recommend that we put food specialties from one particular country on sale for a week at a time and play only music from that country while the sale is going on. By this means we will increase our profits in the same way that the wine store did, and we will be able to predict more precisely what items we should stock at any given time. ” 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
