

全国职称英语考试卫生类C级课堂笔记完型第二讲 PDF转换 可能丢失图片或格式，建议阅读原文

https://www.100test.com/kao_ti2020/129/2021_2022__E5_85_A8_E5_9B_BD_E8_81_8C_E7_c91_129072.htm 完型填空例题解析：

阅读下面的短文。短文中有十五个空白，在文章的后面，每一个空白都列了四个备选答案。请根据文章的内容选择合适的词或短语填在空白处。B/C级难度 Preferences Vary on Circumstance of Dying Among terminally ill people , attitudes differ on what they think constitutes a ___1___ or bad death , the results of a new study suggest . Dr . Elizabeth K . Vig of the University of Washington in Seattle and colleagues interviewed 26 men with ___2___ heart disease or cancer . The men were asked to describe good and bad deaths , and they also answered questions about their ___3___ for dying . “ In this small study , terminally ill men described good and bad deaths ___4___ ” Vig said . “ They did not hold uniform views about such issues ___5___ the presence of others at the very end of life or preferred location of death . ’ ’ Many of the men considered ___6___ in their sleep to be a good death . The reasons were varied and included not ___7___ that death was imminent , and that death would be painless . For close to half of the men , a prolonged death was ___8___ a bad death . Some of the men equated a prolonged death with prolonged pain , ___9___ others thought a prolonged death would be difficult for their families . Most men said that their ___10___ were very important to them , but this did not mean that they wanted relatives close at the ___11___ of death .

“ Valuing family did not also ___12___ wanting family present at the very end of life, ” Vig said . “ In fact , some expressed concerns about __13__ loved ones , ” Vig said . For instance , some men were worried about the emotional or __14__ impact on their family members , according to the Washington researcher . Some were worried __15__ their need for care would be a burden on their families , she said . 词汇 : terminally adv . 末期地 , 晚期地 ; 不治地 , 致命地 imminent adv . 即将发生(或来临)的(指危险、祸患、不幸等) prolong vt . 延长 ; 拖长 ; 拉长 equate vt . 使等同

1. A. wrong B. pure C. good D. whole
2. A. either B. terminal C. final D. terrible
3. A. perfections B. presence C. preferences D. references
4. A. differently B. similarly C. strangely D. heartlessly
5. A. like B. as C. including D. for
6. A. working B. dying C. talking D. dreaming
7. A. regarding B. thinking C. wanting D. knowing
8. A. meant B. presented C. considered D. taken
9. A. when B. although C. because D. while
10. A. families B. friends C. colleagues D. wishes

100Test 下载频道开通 , 各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com