95. The Poor Mans Cure-all Having one of the worlds largest garlic crops , Gilroy , California is known as the "garlic capital of the world." On a hot summer day , a pungent odor rises from this farming town which can be smelled miles away. All you have to do is roll down the window of your car and you know youre in Gilroy. Believing that garlic helps the body fight many forms of diseases , people add garlic to their cooking in many parts of the world. Moreover , its popularly used as the poor mans cure-all. During the First World War it was used as an antiseptic. And in the Second World War it was known as "Russian penicillin." Nowadays , thinking that it kills bacteria , some people eat raw garlic as if it were candy. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问
