Connie and Willy are talking about the previous lesson. C : Do you believe what they say about chili peppers ? W : Frankly speaking , I dont. The last time I got hurt playing soccer , my mom told me not to eat anything spicy. She said it will irritate the wound. C : My mom is the same. For example , according to her , eating fish eyes is good for the eyes. W : If you think thats weird , listen to this. My mom says eating pigs brains makes you smart. C : Are you kidding ? Frankly speaking , I dont believe in any of these of wives tales. W : I wish you would tell that to my mom. Im sick of eating pigs brains. C : Poor guy ! W : Dont tell anyone , OK ? Or Ill never hear the end of it . C : Ok. It doesnt work anyway. W : What do you mean ? C : Im only kidding. Youre at least as smart as a pig.
