? One student is testing another student ' s common knowledge. A : What ' s the tallest building in the world ? B : The Shanghai World Financial Center. Of course. A : What ' s the longest river in the world ? B : In fact , there are two - the Nile and the Amazon. A : How do you know ? Did someone have them measured ? B : Well , yes and no. They measured the rivers , but it ' s hard to tell where they begin. A : Oh , I see. Tell me then. Who ' s the tallest basketball player ? B : I don ' t know. A : Hah ! It ' s Michael Jordan. He ' s the greatest. B : He may be the greatest , but he certainly isn ' t the tallest. A : Ok. Who cares anyway ? B : Then stop asking me all these stupid questions.
