Chen is in America. His American friend , Daisy , suggested having lunch with him at a restaurant. C : Why ' s that waiter so angry ? D : Those people who just left didn ' t seem to give him any tip , which made him angry. C : Is that absolutely necessary here ? D : Kind of. It ' s the custom. You can ' t really avoid leaving at least a small tip. C : But suppose the service is bad ? D : In that case , of course , we don ' t leave one. C : And does the waiter know that ' s why you didn ' t give him a tip ? D : Exactly. It ' s just like telling him off. C : No wonder he ' s so angry. D : Well , in fact , the people did leave him a tip , but that kid over there took it.
