interrogative adjectives, interrogative pronouns, and interrogative prepositions, one other group of words is also used in the formation of questions: the interrogative adverbs come? (how), dove? (where), perch é ? (why), and quando? (when). ITALIAN

INTERROGATIVE ADVERBS Come (KOH-meh)? (How?) Come sta Giancarlo? Dove (DOH-vay)? (Where?) Dov è la biblioteca? Perch é (pair-KEH)? (Why?) Perch é non dormono? Quando (KWAN-doh)? (When?) Quando parte

Pietro? The following interrogative words are the most commonly used to introduce a question: A che ora? (At what time?) Come?

(How?) Come mai? (How come? Why [on earth]? Why ever?) Dove? (Where?) Perch é ? (Why?) Quando? (When?) Quanto? (How much?) Two common contractions are com è ? (a contraction of come è ? meaning "how is?") and dov è ? (a contraction of dove è ? meaning "where is?").

Again, note that in Italian the subject and verb are inverted in interrogative sentences: A che ora partono i tuoi amici? (At what time are your friends leaving?) Come sta Luigi?

(How is Louis?) Dove sono i bambini? (Where are the children?) Dov è il bambino? (Where is the child?) Perch é fumi tanto? (Why do you smoke so much?) Quanto fa due pi ù tre? (How much is two plus three?)

The subject and verb are not inverted with come mai: Come mai Umberto non è qui? (How come Umberto is not here?/Why ever isnt Umberto here?) 100Test 下载频道开通，各类
