Grace , my dearest friend , is cheerful and kind . She is a twelve-year-old Korean , whose black , shiny hair is usually held in place by hairpins . Her sharp eyes show through her glasses , and her friendly smile , as lovely as the spring sunshine , shows two sweet dimples . At school , we are not only good friends , but also competitive intellectual equals , often solving problems and having great times together . What really brings me close to her is her understanding , loving , and supportive character . Shes always there when needed , and never lets you down . One Christmas , as I remember , I received just the gift I was hoping for from Grace : a female hamster . I was thrilled . However , who would have guessed that a few days later my pet was to die ? I cried over the loss , and immediately phoned Grace to share the sorrow . I felt better after having shared the horrible news with her . A while after the phone call , I heard a knock on the door . As I opened the door , there appeared Grace smiling at me and holding a tiny hamster . Wow , a tiny little hamster ! They appeared as if from above , a gift from God , rendering me overjoyed . From that event , I deeply sensed true friendship between us . Grace , what a great , caring friend !
