Ideally, therefore, the choice of an __1__ should be made even before choice of a curriculum in high school. Actually, __2__-, most people make several job choices during their working lives, __3__ because of economic and Industrial changes and partly to improve __4__ position. The “one perfect job” does not exist. Young people should __5__ entersintosa broad flexible training p rogram that will __6__ them for a field of work rather than for a single __7__. Unfortunately many young people have to make career plans __8__ benefit of help form a competent vocational counselor or psychologist. Knowing __9__ about the occupational world, or themselves for that matter, they choose their lifework on a hit-or-miss __10__. Some drift from job to job. Others __11__ to work in which they are unhappy and for which they are not fitted. One common mistake is choosing an occupation for __12__ real or imagined prestige. Too many high-school students - or their parents for them - choose the professional field, __13__ both the relatively small proportion of workers in the professions and the extremely high educational and personal __14__. The imagined or real prestige of a profession or a White-collar “job is __15__ good reason for choosing it as lifes work. __16__, these occupations are not always well paid. Since a large proportion of jobs are in mechanical and manual work, the __17__ of young people should give serious __18__ to these fields. Before making an occupational choice , a person should have a general idea of what he wants __19__ life and how hard he is willing to work to get it. Some people desire social prestige , others intellectual satisfaction. Some want security ; others are willing to take __20__ for financial gain. Each occupational choice has its demands as well as its rewards. 来源 : www.100test.com
