（第43-46题）TALK IN A GEOGRAPITY CLASS The Old Canada Road is a long lost trail between the Canadian province of Quebec and Maine in the northeast corner of the United States. Yes it really was lost and finding it again was a complex process that involved state of our technology：how the location of the roads was pinpointed was very interesting. And Ill return to it as soon as I gave you a little background information. The road was begun in 1817，a few years before Maine even became a state. At the time Quebec was a major market for livestock，crops and fish. So a road to Quebec was seen by officials in Maine as necessary for trade. For about 20 years the movement of people and goods was mostly from Maine to Quebec，and then the trend reversed as thousands of Canadians immigrated to Maine to escape poor crops，the lack of jobs and the threat of disease. I think it was a color epidemic. Besides its negative reasons major building projects in Maine also made the state very attractive for the Canadians who needed work. I should stress though that immigration during that period went in both directions. In fact the flow of people and goods went completely unhindered. There wasn't even a border post until around 1850. The people of the time saw Maine and Quebec as single region mainly because of the strong French influence which is still evident in Maine today. Eventually the road fell into disuse as a major railway was completed. Finally people simply forgot about it and that's how it came to be lost. This brings me back to the original topic. 复述题 例题：What does the speaker say about the road between Maine and Quebec? (A) It was built by the Canadians. (B) It was built to facilitate trade. (C) The path for the road was extremely difficult to clear. (D) Hostilities between Canada and the United States caused construction delays. 答案是B. 演讲中提到了road是为了trade，即“ So a road to Quebec was seen by officials in Maine as necessary for trade ”。 例题：What is one reason Canadians began to immigrate to Maine during the 1800s? (A) Maine was less influenced by the French government. (B) Maine had better employment opportunities. (C) Maine was politically stable. (D) Maine had a better climate. ? 答案是B. 对话中提到了许多原因，如“ to escape poor crops ”， “ the lack of jobs and the threat of disease ”，以及“ color epidemic ”和“ major building projects ”。选项B是其中的一个，只是the lack of jobs变成employment opportunities而已。 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
