校computer lab雇佣student worker政策变化的Statement, 然后是男女两人的评论对话, 要求概括对话主角男生的观点和他的理由。(To ensure the quality of students working in the computer lab, the new policy requires that only the students taking introductory computer courses can work there. But the male student holds that it does not work. A requirement on the grades is also needed. In addition, a student worker can only deal with some minor issues. When some problems such as computer viruses occur, a professional technician is still necessary. ) 第四题是关于Political Economy中著名的“外部性”问题。(“Positive externality” can be simply referred to as a situation in which people without direct dealings with a company benefit from its activities. Sometimes, the government should assist a business company to make “positive externality” possible. For example, a local government may financially assist a bus company to buy new buses causing less air pollution so that the average residents in that area will enjoy cleaner air.) 本题要求应用讲座材料解释“外部性”的概念。第五题是二人对话。(The male student tells the female student that he has often been late for a psychology class whose instructor is his favorite professor because he takes a job on night shift. The female student suggests that he change his job but he does not want to do that because he is well-paid for his current job to cover his daily expenditures. But he has another option which is to switch to a different class with the same course content but a different professor. Which option should the male student take? ) 第六题的学术讲座是关于 photographers change of attitudes toward industrialism in the 19th and 20th century. 口语部分的六题都不出学术和校园生活两方面，但加入了阅读和听力的要求，考察的是运用英语的综合能力。由于准备和答题时间都比较少，平时的针对性强化训练就显得重要了。 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
