One is that we cannot separate the history of philosophy from which of science. Philosophy is 2._____ large discussion about matters on which few people are quite 3._____ certain, and those few hold opposite opinions. As knowledge increases, philosophy buds off the sciences. For an example, in the ancient world and the Middle Ages 4._____ philosophers discussed motion. Aristotle and St. Thomas Aquinas taught that a moving body would slow down until a force 5._____ were constantly applied to it. They were wrong. It goes on moving unless something slows it down. But they had good arguments on their side, and if we study these, and the experiments which proved them right this will help us to distinguish truth 6._____ from false in the scientific controversies of today. 7._____ 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
