The following appeared in a memorandum from the Director of Human Resources to the exectuive officers of Company X."Last year, we surveyed our employees on improvements needed at Company X by having them rank, in order of importance. the issues presented on a list of possible improvements. Improved communications between employees and management was consistently ranked as the issue of highest importance by the employees who responded to the survey. As you know, we have since instituted regular communications sessions conducted by high-level management. which the employees can attend on a voluntary basis. Therefore, it is likely that most employees at Company X now feel that the improvement most needed at the company has been made."Discuss how well reasoned you find this argument. In your discussion be sure to analyze the line of reasoning and the use of evidence in the argument. For example. you may need to consider what questionable assumptions underlie the thinking and what alternative explanations or counterexamples might weaken the conclusion. You can also discuss what sort of evidence would strengthen or refute the argument. what changes in the argument would make it more logically sound, and what, if anything, would help you better evaluate its conclusion.ANALYUSIS OF AN ISSUETime30 minutesDirections: In this section, you will need to analyze the issue presented below and explain your views on it.
