It is suggested that about 20 minutes is spent on Task 1 Which requires candidates to write at least 150 words. In task 1 candidates are asked to respond to a given problem with a letter requesting information or explaining a situation. Depending on the task suggested, candidates are assessed on their ability to: Engage in personal correspondence elicit and provide general factual information express needs, wants, likes and dislikes express opinions (views, complaints etc.) In Task 2 candidates are presented with a point of view or argument or problem. Candidates are assessed on their ability to: provide general factual information outline a problem and present a solution present and possibly justify an opinion, assessment or hypothesis present and possibly evaluate and challenge ideas, evidence and argument The topics are of general interest and it makes no difference what subjects candidates study. Suitable topic areas are: travel accommodation current affairs shops and services health and welfare occupational health and safety recreation social and physical environment Part of the task realisation is to respond appropriately in terms of register, rhetorical organisation, style and content. Appropriate responses are personal semi-formal or formal correspondence (Task 1) And short essays or general reports, addressed to course tutors or examiners (Task 2). No specialist knowledge is expected. Each task is assessed independently. The assessment of Task 2 carries more weight in marking than Task 1. Instructions are clear and easy to follow. Candidates may write on the question paper but this cannot be taken from the test room and will not be seen by the examiner. Answers must be given on the Answer sheet and must be written in full. Notes are not acceptable as answers.

WRITING TASK 2 You should spend about 40 minutes on this task. As part of a class assignment you have to write about the following topic. Some business now say that no one can smoke cigarettes in any of their offices. Some governments have banned smoking in all public places. This is a good idea but it also takes away some of our freedom. Do you agree or disagree? Give reasons for your answer. You should write at least 250 words.
