They say Ireland ' s the BestIreland is the best place in the world to live in for 2005, according to a life quality ranking that appeared in Britain ' s Economist magazine last week. The ambitious attempt to compare happiness levels around the world is based on the principle that wealth is not the only measure of human satisfaction and well-being. The index of 111 countries uses data on incomes, health, unemployment, climate, political stability, job security, gender equality as well as what the magazine calls “ freedom, family and community life ” . Despite the bad weather, troubled health service, traffic congestion (拥挤), gender inequality, and the high cost of living, Ireland scored an impressive 8.33 points out of 10. That put it well ahead of second-place Switzerland, which managed 8.07. Zimbabwe, troubled by political insecurity and hunger, is rated the gloomiest(最差的) , picking up only 3. 89 points. “ Although rising incomes and increased individual choices are highly valued, ” the report said, “ some of the factors associated with modernization such as the breakdown(崩溃) in traditional institutions and family values in part take away from a positive impact. “ Ireland wins because it successfully combines the most desirable elements of the new with the preservation of certain warm elements of the old, such as stable family and community life. ” The magazine admitted measuring quality of life is not a straightforward thing to do, and that its findings would have their critics.No. 2 on the list is Switzerland. The other nations in the top 10 are Norway, Luxembourg, Sweden, Australia, Iceland, Italy, Denmark and Spain.The UK is positioned at No. 29, a much lower position chiefly because of the social and family breakdown recorded in official statistics. The US, which has the second highest per capita GDP (人均国内生产总值) after Luxembourg, took the 13th place in the survey. China was in the lower half the league at 60th.a) For 2,005 years, Ireland has been the best place for humans to live in. 阅读判断解析及参考答案：1. B. 分析：问题句说“在2005年的时间里，爱尔兰一直是最适合人类居住的地方。”

句子中的时间状语结构恰恰就是我们所说的一种可作为线索的特征结构（因为数字容易在文章中被查找到），我们利用2,005作为答案线索，这样在文章中找到答案相关句

：Ireland is the best place in the world to live in for 2005, according to a life quality ranking that appeared in Britain ' s Economist magazine last week.划线结构中提到的是“ for 2005（对2005年而

言)”，不是问题句中说的“ For 2,005 years ( 在2005年的时间里)”，而且划线结构说“爱尔兰是2005年世界上最适合居住的地方”，显然这个内容与问题句的内容不一致，因此判断问题句的说法错误。 2. C. 分析：问题句说“职业稳定是衡量生活质量的最不重要的标准。”利用题干中出现的核心短语“(主语) Job security/职业稳定”和“(表语) life quality/生活质量”作为答案线索，同时关注题干中出现的修饰结构“the least important/最不重要的”，这样找到答案相关句：100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
