

加拿大雅思考生守则 PDF转换可能丢失图片或格式，建议阅读原文

https://www.100test.com/kao_ti2020/178/2021_2022__E5_8A_A0_E6_8B_BF_E5_A4_A7_E9_c10_178598.htm The IELTS Test Centre has a strict policy on Candidate Malpractice. Candidates are expected to adhere to test regulations, and violations of these will not be tolerated. Impersonation: Identification checks are made at Registration on Testing Day, and throughout the test. If an individual is suspected of impersonating a candidate, that individual will not be allowed to write the test. Non-permitted supplies or equipment:

Cell-phones, audio or visual recording devices, dictionaries, other books, bags and any other similar equipment is not permitted in the test room. Any individual found to be provided with such equipment will not be permitted to complete the test. Cheating:

Cheating will not be tolerated during testing. Candidates who attempt to view the papers of other candidates, or disturb other candidates in any way, will be given one warning. A second warning will result in withdrawal of the test paper. The candidate will not be permitted to complete the test. Failing to hand in test papers:

Candidates are required to turn in all test papers. Any candidate who attempts to keep a test paper will not be permitted to complete the test. In all cases of malpractice, evidence of the offence will be provided by trained test invigilators. Where malpractice has taken place no test refund or results will be issued. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com