篇文章对比论证:In addition, the internet, and modern refrigeration techniques, are being used to keep alive the traditional skills of producing salmon.因果论证:We should not ignore technology, because it can be our friend and support our way of life. 举例论证:Some technologies, such as weapons of mass destruction, are of negative impact. Others, such as第三篇文章举例论证:Young children doing arduous and repetitive tasks on a factory production line, for example, are less likely to be ‘ learning ’ than older children helping in an old people ’ s home.第四篇文章对比论证:The governments of developed countries are, in some ways, responsible-though not obliged-for the future of those developing countries.因果论证:Thus, governmental policies and interference in the agricultural business of the poorer nations were made to secure their dominant source of the economy.举例论证:Education cannot be well developed as a result of frequent droughts, famines and disease spreading. More aids for providing the medicine, educational needs and materials can be done by the richer countries. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问
