Attitudes to AIDS now Most people say that the USA is making progress in fighting AIDS . but they don ' t know there ' s no cure and strongly disagree that “ the AIDS epidemic is over . ” a new survey finds . The findings , released Thursday by the Kaiser Family Foundation , reassure activists who have worried that public concern about AIDS might disappear in light of recent news about advances in treatment and declines in deaths . “ While people are very optimistic about the advances . they ' re still realistic about the fact that there is no cure ” , says Sophia Chang , director of HIV programs at the foundation . The Kaiser survey , like a recent USA TODAY Gallup Poll , does find that the number of people ranking AIDS as the country ' s top health problem has fallen . In the Kaiser poll , 38% say it ' s the top concern , down from 44% in a 1996 poll ; in the Gallup Poll , 29% say AIDS is No.1 , down from 41% in 1992 and 67% in 1987 . Other findings from Kaiser , which polled more than 1,200 adults in September and October and asked additional questions of another 1,000 adults in November : 52% say the country is making progress against AIDS, up from 32% in 1995 . 51% say the government spends too little on AIDS . 86% correctly say AIDS drugs can now lengthen lives ; an equal number correctly say that the drugs are not cures . 67% incorrectly say that AIDS deaths increased or stayed the same in the past year ; 24% know deaths fell . Daniel Zingale , director of AIDS Action Council , says , “ I ’ m encouraged that the American people are getting the message that the AIDS epidemic isn ’ t over . I hope the decision-makers in Washington are getting the same message... We have seen signs of complacency. ” ’ ’ 练习 : 1.What do activists worry about? A)Recent news about AIDS is not true .
