The listing plan awaited a final approval from the China Securities Regulatory Commission, the South China Morning Post reported, citing sources close to the situation. The bank may file a preliminary listing application with the Hong Kong Stock Exchange as soon as this week, the paper added. The offering, which Bank of China previously planned to complete before April, was now most likely to be launched in May, the paper quoted the sources as saying. The offering would value the bank at 400 billion yuan (US$49.6 billion), the paper said. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
