1. 信件写作: 假设你有一个外国朋友要来中国学中文，你给他写封信提出一些建议。 Hi, Jack, Are you doing fine in Canada? I am glad to learn that you are coming to Shanghai to learn Chinese in Fudan University. As China is playing an increasingly important part in global affairs, your decision is truly a wise move. Next, I am trying to give you some suggestions on how to learn Chinese effectively. As you know, Chinese is sharply different from western languages in spelling, grammar, pronunciation and other aspects. In the process of learning, you should focus your attention on these differences and be fully aware of the difficulties you may encounter. And you should immerse yourself in Chinese culture to boost your listening, speaking, reading and writing power of the language. Last, remember: Practice makes perfect. Hope to see you soon. Best regards, Yours, Frank.

Attend Your Classes Regularly Nowadays it is a very common phenomenon for some university students to be late for or even be absent from their classes. And still there are some students who slip out of the classroom before the class is over. Class attendance has become a thorny problem to both the students and the teachers. In fact, it is very important for the students to attend their classes regularly. First, it will ensure you to catch up with the teachers in your learning. That is very helpful to you if you want to do a good job in your study. Second, attending classes regularly is a way of showing respect to your teachers, too. Your teachers will feel bad if the students do not attend their classes, which, in return, will affect their teaching and be no good for both the students. Third, attending classes regularly will help to form a good habit of punctuality, which is of great importance for the students to do a good job in the future. Therefore, we university students should form the good habit of attending our classes regularly from now on. And some day we will benefit from it.
