WRITING SECTION A COMPOSITION Taking Part in School ActivitiesSome students prefer to attend campus activities while others take little interest in them and spend all the time on their studies. The former bases their view on the following reasons. Firstly they think book learning is not all their school life. Instead they should take every opportunity to get access to practical knowledge.
Secondly, they hold that after long hours of study, they can relax themselves both physically and mentally by way of participating in school activities. However, the later maintain that they should make full use of time to pursue their academic studies, and that school activities are very time consuming and have nothing to do with their personal development. As far as I am concerned, I prefer the first view. We can also learn a great deal from other students in school activities. We all know book worms cannot keep up with the times any longer. SECTION B NOTE-WRITINGDear Mrs. Malcolm: We hear that John has graduated from Princeton and that he made a very fine record for himself there. You must be proud of his splendid accomplishment, and we are very happy for you. Please give John our congratulations, and our best wishes for success and happiness in his chosen work. Sincerely yours, Myra T. ClarkPART
