THE FORMER RESIDENCE OF SHENCONGWEN This is the former residence of shencongwen,a very famous auther, archaeologist and historian in china. 来源

: www.examda.com lined in the zhongying street in the south part of the fenghuang old town, the residence is a typical spacious ancient courtyard with special tectonic style of ming and qing dynasty. walk into the yard, you can find that there is a small patio in the center of the courtyard. which is built with red rock. around the patio , there are about 10 rooms which are small but decorated by special carved wooden windows .it's so beautiful. this courtyard is built by mr shen's grandfather in 1866 on dec.28,1902. shencongwen was born in the old countyard.and spent his childhood here. in 1917,when he was 15 years old, mr shen left family and joined the army. from 1917 to 1922, mr shen had lived with soildiers, farmers, workers and some other common people, and know their tragic lives. This special experience stunned up his enthusiasm of writing. So in 1919, Mr Shen went to Beijing alone, and began his hard writing. After his series of works WEST OF HUNAN & FRINGE TOWN were punished, Mr Shen became nation-wide well-known. At that time, he was even as famous as Lu Xun, another famous author in Chinese literature area. It's said that Shen Congwen is the one who is the most possible to win the prize. Mr Shen devoted all his life to writing, his 5-million word works are thought as the precious legacy to the world literature. Meanwhile, these works are also very valuable data for researching the history of Hunan province and even China. This 100-years-old courtyard was renovated in 1989. The 1st room on the right hand is for displaying Mr Shen's photos, and what displayed in the 2nd room are Mr Shen's handwriting articles. At the left side, you'll find a list of Mr Shen's work of different additions. In the center of the middle room, there is a Mr Shen's line drawing hanging on the wall. The left fringe room is Mr Shen's bedroom and another one on the right is full of marble desks and chairs.
