P   Z   221.
precaution: safety precaution. take precautions against diseases 222. premise: If your premise is established, your conclusions may be right. the business moved to premises in Beijing Road. 223. prestige: such prestige cars as Mercedes and Cadillac. gain him international prestige 224. priority: give priority to the problem of heavy traffic 225. privacy: respect other's privacy 226. privilege: grant him the privilege of investigating the matter independently. enjoy foreign exchange privileges 227. probe: atom probe. probe into his background thoroughly 228. proficiency: proficiency in English. be proficient at foreign languages 229. project: carry out a new capital project. project a 5% consumer price increase. project the film with different ways on the screen 230. promise: carry out your promise.
The news brings little promise of peace. promise to write soon. a research subject that promises well 231. prospect: prospects of strong economic growth. He called on several prospects but failed to make a sale 232. prototype: produce a prototype of machine. the first prototype aircraft 233. punch: a punch press. punch two holes in the box. punch the keys of a typewriter 234. quota: output quotas. export quota 235. rage: fly into a rage. have a rage for popular music 236. rally: a sharp rally in oil price. stocks rallied after brief uncertainty 237. realm: the realm of science. the realm of nature 238. recipe: a recipe book. a recipe for living long 239. recommendation:

a letter of recommendation. follow other's recommendations 240. register: an employment register. a household register register the birth of his child. register this letter for me 100Test