China. 每年，高校许多大学生受到鼓舞去贫困地区支教。 2. 支教活动的意义。 3. 我的看法。 Each year, college students, encouraged to aid students in the povertystricken areas, volunteer themselves in poor villages for a year and try to improve education in poor areas. Aideducation has been beneficial in two aspects. On the one hand, college volunteers are really devoted to the cause. They have opened the eyes of students in underdeveloped regions to the outside world by bringing them new knowledge and thoughts. As a result, they are extremely wellreceived by the children there. On the other hand, college students have received a rigorous training by adapting to the harsh living conditions. They are enjoying the appreciation and nodistance friendship from the children. What ' s more, they are greatly inspired by the moving and tireless spirit of the children. In my opinion, China ' s educational development can ' t be isolated from each individual and we college students should take the lead in response to the appeal for offering aid to children in poor areas. 2 . 申请奖学金 Dear Sir : I am writing to you in the hope of obtaining the scholarship in Chemisty that our department announced to offer last Wendnesday to support my research work. Would you please send me the necessary application froms and any further details about the scholarships. As a current undergraduate student in our school, I have been lucky enough to have the wonderful chances to work with many excellent professors who not only showed me the fascinating aspects of Chemistry, but also increased my understanding on this subject greatly. Through two years study in Chemistry, I have been working hard. In my study and research, I have already published three essays on the World Book Publishing House for the last two years. I would like to keep focusing on this field for my advanced studies. Enclosed please find three letters of recommendation and my resume. Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to your reply. Respectfully yours,
