Part Two Reading Comprehension Directions : In this part there are 4 passages followed by questions or unfinished statements , each with four suggested answers. Choose the one you think is the best answer. Mark your choice on the Answer Sheet by drawing with a pencil a short bar across the corresponding letter in the brackets. Questions 11-15 are based on the following passage : Until recently the opportunities for criminal activities on the Internet have been low. However , the volume of business done on the Internet is growing rapidly , as people order books and other products and make money transactions. All this is creating temptations for hackers (黑客) 。 Hackers are often young people who are interested in computers. They use them to move quietly to the Internet , looking for ways to break into computers systems run by banks , telephone companies and even Government departments. They look for examples of credit cards and try to steal the numbers. Hackers rarely admit to a successful break-in. The first indication of a hacking may be when a customer discovers a wrong money transaction on a credit card account. It is harder to check on somebody misusing an online connection unless there is a massive download of information which would call the attention of the consumer. 11. The main idea of the first paragraph is that _____ . (A) the opportunities for criminal activities on the Internet have been low (B) the opportunities for criminal activities on the Internet are low (C) there are more
