Leading domestic football website, GoalChina.net, quoted the source as saying the coaching group of Zhu will be dismissed after a coaching committee conference of the football body meets before August 10. Zhu landed in hot water after Chinas early exit from last months Asian Cup finals where his team, considered a title favoured because several key players compete in European leagues, produced its worst result in 27 years and didnt pass the group stage. Zhu had signed a result-for-post contract with the administration in early July, which stipulated he would step down if the team failed to reach the last four at the continents biggest football tournament. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
