1) I got off on the wrong foot.

NOTE1: 注意用的是foot，而不是feet； NOTE2: It means that I met with trouble at the beginning. 2) I have bigger fish to fry.

NOTE1: to的弱读要注意； NOTE2: It means that I have something important to do. 「世博V O A」洗耳恭听，两个句子小菜一碟！ Here is a story: When I first came here to teach, I got off on the wrong foot. At that time, I was only 24 years old and some of my students didnt listen to me. It was natural, for I was so young and I didnt even look like a teacher. From then on, I made up my mind to learn more and to communicate with my students more. Little by little, I was up on the teaching road. Still, I have bigger fish to fry next year. That is to say, I am planning to join an English teaching website to teach more students. I hope that in the future, my students are all over the world. 1) I got off on the wrong foot. 我出师不利。

2) I have bigger fish to fry. 我有更重要的事情要做。「请你猜猜看」挑战自我，情景抢答也刺激！ Here are three situations: S1.
