Best greetings to my dear netfriends! 1) A little bird told me.有人告诉我. 比如说有人给andy讲了这样的一个故事: There was one student who didnt study hard at all. when the exam comes, he would always have to burn the midnight oil in order to pass the exam. But there was one occasion he didnt worry so much because he knew that the exam for the next day was not so difficult. It would be a 100 multiple choice exam. So he thought he could pass it just by throwing the coins in the air to decide which one to choose. So he didnt prepare the exam at all. But finally when the result came out, he noticed he didnt pass. why? The teacher judged also by throwing coins in the air and then making a decision whether to let him pass or not. The coin showed he couldnt pass. 2) He wants a job in an A-list company!他想进入一流公司工作!
