1) What are you driving at?

NOTE1: 注意driving里双元音要饱满；NOTE2: It means that what do you really want to say? 2) It beats me. NOTE1: 注意句子的重音在beats而不是me；NOTE2: It means that I cannot work it out. 「世博VOA」洗耳恭听，两个句子小菜一碟！

Here is a story: Today Anthony was especially good to me. When he saw me, he said that I was so cool today. Then he said that I would have a prosperous future in this company, and so on. I was feeling something different, for Anthony had never been so kind to me like that before. What are you driving at? I asked my colleagues, they said that our manager had announced that I would be a future department manager. Wow, that was a piece of good news for me.

Maybe Anthony had heard of it and he wanted to get something good from me. Hmm, this kind of people usually beat me a lot. 1)

What are you driving at? 你到底是什么意思？2) It beats me. 这个难倒我了。

「请你猜猜看」挑战自我，情景抢答也刺激！

Here are three situations: S1. You have been working on this mathematic question for the whole afternoon and you still havent worked it out. When the teacher is asking you the answer to this question, what would you say? S2. He is beating around the bush now. If you want to know directly what he really wants to do, how can you ask him? S3. Andy enjoys music so much, but he cannot sing well. One day, when Andy was giving the lesson, the students asked him to sing an English song. What would be Andys answer?
