An old lady lived in a village went to town one 76 Saturday, and after she had bought some fruit and vegetable in the market for herself and a friend who was 77 ill, she went into a shop where sold glasses. She tried 78 one of glasses, and then another pair, but none of them 79 seem to be right. The shopkeeper was a very patient 80 81 man, and after some time he asked the old lady not > worry. 82 He also said to her, "Everything will > all right in the 83 end. It isnt easily to get the right glasses, you know." 84 "No," answered the old lady, "and it is much more difficulty when you are shopping for a friend." 85 76. 77.
