In Chapter 3, you learned how to draft a document and how to revise a document to make sure it is complete. In this chapter you will continue to learn how to revise what you write. You will concentrate on the paragraphs of your written documents. In other words, you will learn how to make your paragraphs cohesive. Plan Organise Draft Revise Objectives By the end of this chapter, you will be able to revise your paragraphs and make them cohesive. Do you know what cohesive means? Cohesive: when all the parts are related to form a whole. You will make your paragraphs cohesive by learning two things: 1) define a cohesive paragraph and 2) write a cohesive paragraph using a topic sentence supporting sentences and transitions. Being Cohesive:

What Is A Paragraph? Look at the following letter. In Chapter 3, you revised it to make it complete. But something is still wrong. Yours sincerely Clever Man Answer: Clever Man Manager Smart Branch What's wrong with this letter? Can you see that it only has one paragraph? the paragraph is very long? there are several unrelated ideas in the paragraph? As a result, the paragraph in this letter is not cohesive. You need to revise paragraphs like this. To achieve this, you need to know the answer to the following question: What is a cohesive paragraph? Before you can write a cohesive paragraph, you need to know what a cohesive paragraph is. Do you know what a cohesive paragraph is? Choose the option that you think best describes a cohesive paragraph.

1. A cohesive paragraph is one long sentence containing many unrelated ideas or subjects.
2. A cohesive paragraph is a group of unrelated sentences containing many unrelated ideas or subjects.
3. A cohesive paragraph is a group of sentences related to one another by a single idea or subject.
4. A cohesive paragraph is one long sentence containing one idea or subject.

Learning Point 1 A paragraph is a group of sentences related to one another by a single subject or idea. All the sentences in a paragraph should be related to that one idea. If they 're related, then the paragraph will be cohesive.
