Possibility & Oslash. Example 1: Financial Aid 1. According to the conversation, what can be inferred about the qualifications to apply for bursaries? A The students should live in the town where the university is located. B The students should be in a needy situation. C

The students should be superior in grades. D The students should be good at computers. 2. What is the student most likely to do after this conversation? A He will pick up an application form from the Scholarship and Bursary Department. B He will meet some one who is dealing with bursaries. C He will check the website of the Scholarship and Bursary Department. D He will move out of town. C:

Hi, welcome to the Scholarship and Bursary Department. I am

Cathy. S: Hi. Can I get some information about financial aid here? C:

You mean bursaries, a monetary grant to students in need? S: Yes. C:

Well, bursaries are usually determined by a committee set up by the donor. S: Can I apply for bursaries? C: You certainly can if you show you are financially in need. Bursaries generally consider financial need to a greater extent than scholarships. Some bursaries are specifically for out-of-town students. Do you live out of town? S: Yes,

I do. Can you tell what other requirements to apply for bursaries are? C: Well, you can find detailed information on our website. The first page of our website has a link for bursaries. You can download a form there and apply on-line. You might have to submit other official documents to our department in person. S: Thank you, Cathy. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
