Others believe that going to classes should be optional for students. Which point of view do you agree with? Use specific reasons and details to explain your answer. Nowadays, there is a debate over whether college students should be required to attend class or not. Some people claim that students have obligation to attend classes, while others believed that students have rights to choose. As a matter of fact, this issue is a complex and controversial one. Different people hold different views due to their distinct backgrounds. In my opinion, whether one choice takes precedence over another depends on the specific situation. Actually, the final judgment should rely on a case-by-case analysis, but in general, I have the tendency to agree that university students should be required to attend classes. First of all, people attend university since they want to learn something to improve themselves, which classes can provide. On the other hand, although people could learn knowledge by self-studying, in the class, Professor will not only teach people some knowledge, but also let them know how to use and develop it. Honestly to say, it is difficult for people to understand this process merely through self-studying. Secondly, joining classes can provide the opportunity to communicate with others. In the class, professors always give some topics for students to discuss. In the discussion, people will be surprised that so many fresh thoughts are pushing to you from your classmates and they are free. Unfortunately, people will miss the opportunity to learn from the others if they absent the class. Admittedly, there are several disadvantages to attend classes. Some people such as John Nash criticize that classes would destroy their original thinking ability. Besides, some classes are really boring for students. In conclusion, despite the fact that there are some disadvantages in attending classes, the advantages of joining classes are far more outweigh. As the reasons mentioned above, we could suggest that attend classes, unless you are a genius. 修改意

见: Nowadays, there is a debate over whether college students should be required to attend class or not. Some people claim that students have obligation to attend classes, while others believed that students have rights to choose. As a matter of fact, this issue is a complex and controversial one. Different people hold different views due to their distinct backgrounds. In my opinion, whether one choice takes precedence over another depends on the specific situation. Actually, the final judgment should rely on a case-by-case analysis, but in general, I have the tendency to agree that university students should be required to attend classes. 模板的痕迹较重, 关键是有些显罗嗦。 First of all, people (全文最好统一用students) attend university since they want to learn something to improve themselves, which classes can provide. 需要至少再用一句话说说明take classes的好处, 可以考虑将下面的划线部分提前 On the other hand, although people could learn knowledge by self-studying, in the class, Professor will not only teach people some knowledge, but also let them know how to use and develop it. Honestly to say 这个表达好像不对吧，有查过吗？, it is difficult for people to understand this process merely through self-studying. Secondly, joining classes can provide 这里最好有一个明确的对象 provide students with the opportunity to communicate with others. In the class, professors always give some topics for students to discuss. In the discussion, people 前文一直在说students, 现在又突然变成了people?will be surprised that so many fresh thoughts are pushing to you from your classmates and they are free. Unfortunately, people will miss the opportunity to learn from the others if they absent the class. Admittedly, there are several disadvantages to attend attending classes. Some people such as JohnNash criticize 时态？ that classes would destroy their original thinking ability. Besides, some classes are really boring for students. In conclusion, despite the fact that there are some disadvantages in attending classes, the advantages of joining classes are far more outweigh ？. As the reasons mentioned above, we could suggest that attend classes, unless you are a genius. 一些不确定的用法不要轻易用，最好先查查，避免硬伤 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问
