The DJIA, with NYSE trading curbs in place, closed down 177.98 points at 9,253.79, a new closing low for the year to date. The Samp.T Wireless closed down 13 cents at 5.87 usd, Nextel Communications Inc down 26 cents at 3.16 usd, and Sprint PCS unchanged at 4.10. Brokerages lost early gains to close lower despite a positive new research note from Merrill Lynch. JP Morgan ended down 39 cents at 32.99 usd, Goldman Sachs down 2.15 usd at 70.55. MetLife closed up 1.15 usd at 29.72 after Morgan Stanley raised its rating on the stock to overweight from equal-weight, primarily due to the sharp decline in share price in recent weeks. Xerox closed up 1.12 usd at 8.97 after obtaining a new bank loan and after Standard & Poors affirmed its BB- corporate credit rating on Xerox Corp and related entities and removed them from CreditWatch, where they were placed on April 18. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
