This is a coincidence. Would you mind if I sat down? Kathleen: Yes, yes, I would. Actually I ' m expecting someone. Thanks. Joe: Pride and Prejudice. Kathleen: Do you mind? Joe: I bet you read that book every year. I bet you just love that Mr. Darcy and your sentimental heart just beats wildly at the thought that he and, well, you know whatever her name is, are truly honestly going to end up together. Waiter: Can I get you something? Kathleen: No, no, he ' s not staying. Joe: Mochachino, decaf, non-fat. Kathleen: No, you are not staying. Joe: I ' ll just stay here until your friend gets here. Gee, is he late? Kathleen: The heroine of Pride and Prejudice is Elizabeth Bennet. She is one of the greatest and most complex characters ever written, not that you would know. Joe: As a matter of fact, I ' ve read it. Kathleen: Oh, well, good for you. Joe: I think you ' ll discover a lot of things if you really knew me. Kathleen: If I really knew you, I know what I would find instead of a brain, a cash register, instead of a heart, a bottom line. Joe: What? Kathleen: I just had a breakthrough. Joe: What is it? Kathleen: I have you to thank for it, for the first time in my life when confronted with a horrible, insensitive person I knew exactly what I wanted to say and I said it. Joe: Well, I think you have a gift for it. It was a perfect blend of poetry and meanness. 乔：噢，我认为你有这方面的天赋。刚才真是诗意加卑劣啊。 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
