Together, the four cases were responsible for 12 civilian deaths. One suspect confessed to his role in setting ablaze the motorcycle garage in Dagze county, before throwing two petroleum gas cylinders into the garage. The fire claimed five lives. Another suspect admitted to setting fire to a trousers store, in addition to looting two other stores. A sales assistant in the trousers store was burned to death. Meanwhile, three others in police custody are suspected of setting fire to a clothing store, which claimed the lives of five girls in their twenties. Police also arrested those suspected of starting the fire that consumed another clothing store and killed a girl. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
