1. Listening I registered the TOEFL of 15th of May. So I will spend some time on TOEFL listening practice. Because the score of listening section is not a part that considered by immigration department of Canada consulate, I will not spend my valuable time on it.

2. Reading I prepare the Reading section of TOEFL and IELTS at the same time. So, no extra time for practice this section except looking through the example.

3. Writing I downloaded several tasks from www.ielts.com and wrote according to them and TOEFL an essay every day or every other day. I found a American English teacher and let him correct my writing once a week. I'm also going to keep in mind some good essays in order to use them in the real examination.

4. Speaking I have chance to talk to some foreigners during work time. But it is not enough. I have arrange with the here in above American to simulate the test with me once a week. Hope the information is useful for all of you.
