3 . D . 细节题。利用备选项中的细节信息结构：complex pieces of music和simple songs共同作为答案线索，在文章中查找答案相关句：If there is one group of Workers across the Western world who would be glad that Christmas is over that group is shop workers . It is not that they like to complain . They realize that they are going to be rushed off their feet at Christmas . They know that their employers need happy customers to make their profits that pay their wages . But there is one thing about working in a Shop over Christmas that is too bad to tolerate . That thing is music . These days , all Shops and many offices have what is known as “ Piped music ” or “ muzak ” playing for all the hours that they are open . Muzak has an odd history . During the 1940s , music was played to cows as part of a scientific experiment . (第2题答案相关句) It was found that cows which listened to simple , happy music produced more milk . Perhaps workers and customers who listened to simple , happy music would be more productive and spend more money. In fact , nobody knows what effect playing muzak in shops has on profits . It is simply something that everybody does . But we are learning more about the effect of constantly repeated hearings of songs on the people who have to hear them all the time . (第5段) Research (研究) shows (显示 , 指示) that repeated hearings of complex pieces of music bring greater enjoyment (快乐) before becoming tiresome (烦人的) . And that point (时刻 , 地点 , 分数) come (到来 , 出现) much sooner (更快) with simple songs. 答案相关句说 : 重复收听复杂得音乐会先觉得好听 , 然后觉得厌烦的情况 , 而出现厌倦这一时刻 , 听简单的歌曲比听复杂的音乐出现的更快 . 100Test 下载频道开通 , 各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
