at Zhejiang University of Media and Communications in Hangzhou.

I see so many signs here that are terribly incorrect and usually pretty funny. Here is one of my favourites. This sign is on a bus line. It should say "Keep Off", or something to that effect.- Ashley FugettEditors note:Yes, thats close, but a little harsh. Most likely it would be either "No standing (here)" or "Stand back", or, possibly, depending on the location of the sign, "No kicking" (the seat in front or a protected box).The right one is "No standing here""Stand back""No kicking" 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接
